

Lucinda

4 las Flores de la Nochebuena

A New Family Opera by Evan Mack and Joshua McGuire

December 12 & 13 at 9:30am, 11:00am & 7pm

Taube Atrium Theater, Wilsey Center for Opera

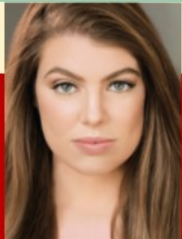

401 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco

Information/Tickets: www.sfopera.com/lucinda or 415.565.3280

Group tickets and study guides available

Based upon the popular Mexican folk tale of the first poinsettia, this lively, interactive and heartwarming story of perseverance, transformation, and a holiday miracle will set your season aglow!

Family friendly! Suitable for ages 5 to adult

SAN FRANCISCO
OPERA GUILD
GIVING VOICE TO POTENTIAL

Lucinda

4 las Flores de la Nochebuena

By Evan Mack and Joshua McGuire

Join San Francisco Opera Guild in this new Holiday tradition as we celebrate the joy of the season with this charming family opera!

Directed by Caroline Altman

Music Direction by Paul Dab

Starring Leandra Ramm, Mark Hernandez, Billy Lawley, and Alejandra Tejada in the title role.

Featuring San Francisco Opera Scouts Miraya Choudhury, Margot Hall, Amelia Lifszit, Julia Noel, Kimy Pedersen, Curtis Resnick, Joaquin Rubio, and Phoebe Wright

This production is made possible, in part, by a generous grant from the California Arts Council

